

BIO ILLIR BAZAITI

- Bio – Ilir Bazaiti is a health and safety practitioner, who works as Associate Environmental, Health and Safety Advisor for the Environmental and Sustainability Department of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD). His role as Associate EHS Advisor involves advancing and promoting worker and community safety across diverse projects financed by EBRD. With over ten years of experience in health and safety roles including the current role in EBRD, his focus has been in ensuring compliance with EBRD's Environmental and Social Policy and Environmental and Social Requirements with particular attention to occupational safety and health, psychosocial risks, community safety, and project environmental issues.