

ANNA TSAKANIKA

Anna Tsakanika is a Senior Manager of Health, Safety & Wellbeing at OTE Group, with over a decade of leadership experience in corporate health and safety management. She leads the design and implementation of Group-wide H&S strategies aligned with ISO 45001 and national legislation, with strong expertise in risk management, emergency preparedness, and safety culture transformation. Her work has received European recognition, including EU-OSHA Healthy Workplaces Good Practice Awards (2023–2025), as well as multiple Gold and Silver Health & Safety Awards for innovative initiatives in employee wellbeing, emergency response, and occupational risk prevention. Anna is a certified ISO 45001 Lead Auditor and is recognized for her strengths in compliance management, stakeholder engagement, process digitalization, and driving measurable improvements in workplace safety performance